AIR LIMOUSINES AND LINERS SOON, SAYS WOODHOUSE

Cities Must Establish Aero-the next ten years, Henry Woodhouse, member of the Board of Governors of the Aero Club of America, told the American Civic Association in convention here to-day.

"The time has come when every city must establish aerodrome terminals, where aircraft carrying passengers and merchandise can land," he said.

"We soon shall have air liners.
How soon will they come? As soon as somebody places an order for them.
We have engineers to build them, large, reliable motors to drive them, instruments to operate them, there are also financiers ready to finance the air lines."

In support of his statements, which he characterized as somewhat revolutionary, Woodhouse told of record performances and advances made in aerodynamics. Recently in England a huge land aeroplane carried twenty-one passengers to a height of 7,000 feet, while an American flying boat, with a wing span of 130 feet, equipped with 1,000 horsepower, carrying eight passengers, made a speed of seventy-five miles an hour.

Limousines of the air, more comfortable than Pullmans; practically noiseless motors; elevated aviation stations in the heart of cities; new styles in city planning and complete annihilation of space through the wireless telephone and telegraph and the aeroplane were prophecies made by Woodhouse.

POLICEMEN GIRL ACCUSES SAY CHARGE IS "FRAME UP"

Bornkessel and Loeb Held in $2,000 Bail Each—Woman Is Held for Abduction.

Andrew Bornkessel and William P.
Loeb, the two policemen arrested last night on a charge preferred by Gertrude Hilton, a fourteen-year-old girl taken in custody last week for theft, were arraigned before Magistrate Murphy in West Side Court to-day.
They pleaded not guilty, gave bail in the sum of $2,000, and their examination was set for next Thursday in the same court.

"Both policemen are married, Bor-nkessel, thirty years old, living at No.
500 West Fifty-eighth Street, and Loeb, thirty-eight, residing at No.
1636 Amsterdam Avenue. The former has been a member of the department four years and the latter twelve years. They were attached to Inspector Daly's staff. Beyond declaring the charge against them was a "frame up" the accused policemen would not discuss the case.

Both Howard, also known as Lillian Lichtenstein, the cabaret singer arrested at the same time as the Hilton girl, was arraigned to-day on a charge of abduction; it being alleged the young girl was in her apartment when the two policemen visited her.
She pleaded not guilty and was held in $5,000 bail.

The Hilton girl was in court. She has been in the custody of the Children's Society since her arrest on the charge of taking $1,200 from Richard Verbrugge, a captain in the Netherlands army, during a joyride a few months ago.
